Lincoln Exhibit Opens at Grace Mellman Library in Temecula

A traveling exhibit featuring reproduction artifacts such as Abraham Lincoln's stovepipe hat and bloody gloves from his assassination opens at the Grace Mellman Library from Dec. 31- Jan. 20.

"Abraham Lincoln: Self-Made in America" features unique artifacts modeled from originals at the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum. The exhibit culminates Temecula Reads! Lincoln, a year-long education program sponsored by the Friends of the Temecula Libraries.

Visit the exhibit in the rotunda at the Grace Mellman Library, 41000 County Center Drive, during regular library hours. Admission is free!
